Mrs. Karen Franklin

Dear Karen:

After I gave you the several family trees from the various branches of my family, I came across a letter I had received several years ago from my cousin, Julian Reinheimer, who lives in Palos Verdes, California. Julian's mother, Cecelia (Simsohn) Reinheimer, was my father's cousin, and you will find their names on either the Stern or Goldsmith trees, probably both.

Julian undertook his own research project with respect to the Falck and Hofmann branches of the family, and I am enclosing a copy of his letter of August 14, 2000, with the results of his efforts. If you look at the third page, headed "Descendants of Naphtali Hirsch Hofmann," under the name Abraham Goldsmith, you will find the names of my paternal grandparents, Rose Goldsmith Stern and Sidney Stern.

I hope that this information may be of further interest to you. Julian's website is shown in his letter, in case you would like to get in touch with him. I'm sure he would be delighted to talk to you.

It was great, as always, seeing you last week, and I'm sorry that we couldn't spend more time together.

Affectionately,

Horace

Encl.

JULIAN REINHEIMER, Ph D

To the Children of Abraham (Goldsmith that is)

Over the past eight or so years I have bothered you from time to time asking about family information. This is a progress report of sorts. In the course of my "researches" I joined efforts with two distant cousins of ours, Roger Cibella of Seattle, and Jozef Jacobs of Hummelo, The Netherlands. We combined all of the information that we have, and about two years ago Roger built a web page and put the entire family as we knew it then on this site.

Our knowledge of the family actually starts with a Falk Jacob in Oberlistingen around 1700. His son changed the name of those members of the family living in Oberlistingen in 1812 to Goldschmidt. (One branch had already moved to The Netherlands and retained the Name Jacobs.) We are indebted to Jozef for researching the European roots and tying all of this together. We have also received information from a number of other descendants of Falk Jacob. There are still many holes, but Roger's web site has about 3000 names at this time. For those of you who are interested the web site is:

<http://sr3.xoom.com/goldschmidt>

I am also enclosing two descendancy charts. One is for Jacob Falk's family down to Abraham Goldsmith (it rapidly gets unwieldy if we continue down to further generations, that is why Roger used the format he has on the web site.), and the other is for the line that Cecelia Adler G. came from. I have less information here. Cecelia was the granddaughter of Rabbi Mendel Kargau and his second wife. This wife came from a family Muhr/Schlenker that apparently had been in Fuerth for many years

In addition I am including the addresses of those of you to whom I am sending this note. If you think of others to whom I should send it to please let me know.

Please send any corrections and comments to Roger and me. Or, if you prefer just me; I have a (more or less) duplicate of the files that Roger has, and I am trying to maintain the descendants of Seligmann Goldschmidt (Abraham's father) as correct and up to date as possible. If any of you want a printed copy of this file I will be glad to send it to you.

Regards to all
